

CORONAVIRUS AND THE BILTON IN AINSTY WITH BICKERTON PARISH COUNCIL

The Parish Council has taken advice about its future actions due to the current Coronavirus Epidemic.

Future Monthly Meetings are cancelled until further notice. In order to provide continuity for the functioning of the Parish Council, all Councillors have agreed the following working arrangements.

Under the authority of the Local Government Act 1972 section 101, the Parish Council has unanimously agreed to delegate future actions of the Council to the Clerk/RFO, until the current epidemic has ended and public meetings can again be arranged.

In the interim period, any decisions which are required will be agreed by email circulation to all elected Parish Councillors for their approval. Any significant issues (Planning Applications, Planning Enforcement Notices, Annual Accounts and Audits etc) which are decided, will be confirmed on the Parish Council website, which can be viewed by anyone.
